

Real Estate Outsourcing

As strategic legal partners, DLA Piper helps organizations unlock long-term value from real estate outsourcing by structuring and negotiating contracts that drive operational efficiency, enhance service quality, and support business transformation goals.

Combining the strength of our leading global real estate and outsourcing practices, we help companies achieve priority corporate real estate goals by partnering with service providers to deliver the agility and resiliency needed to thrive in an evolving and competitive landscape.

From integrated facilities management and lease administration to project and transaction management, we assist companies with high-value strategic outsourcing agreements worldwide and in heavily regulated industries.
